

CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL, UGH!

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Best for Their Little Stomachs, Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "physic" that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and thirty feet of bowels now; we coax them. We have no dread of after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are injured by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, breath feverish and its little system full of cold; has diarrhoea, sore throat, stomach ache; doesn't eat or rest well—remember—look at the tongue; if coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well, smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, simply cannot be harmful. It sweetens the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little one's waste-clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested, fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown-ups, plainly printed on the package.

By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.—Advt.

RAY COLLINS' CONTRACT HAS BEEN RECEIVED

Last of Red Sox Hold-Outs Is Now on His Way to Training Camp at Hot Springs.

Boston, March 14.—The signed contract of Ray Collins, the last of the Red Sox hold-outs, was received by Secretary Robert B. McRoy of the Boston American league club in his morning mail yesterday. Collins mailed the contract from his home in Burlington, Vt., just before leaving for Hot Springs training camp on Wednesday noon. From the first, President McAleer insisted that Collins should sign before he reported, and he eventually carried his point.

Collins was unable to get exactly what he demanded in the way of salary, but it is understood that the club made some concessions to him, and that a long-distance telephone conversation Secretary McRoy had with the southpaw, earlier in the week, clinched the matter.

NEWELL REPLIES TO HILL.

Irrigation Director Declares Railroad Man Shows Lack of Information.

Chicago, March 14.—Director Newell of the government reclamation service has made further reply on behalf of the government to remarks credited to a recent speech by James J. Hill, Mr. Hill was quoted as stating that the irrigation work of the government could be accomplished at half the amount now expended. Mr. Newell said Mr. Hill showed a surprising lack of accurate information and apparently clung to the worn-out theory that the government could not work as cheaply as private concerns. He asserted that "a compilation of the costs of all the irrigation projects of considerable size, recently built or in process of construction in the United States by private or corporate capital, including in this estimate more than one hundred large systems, shows the average cost of water an acre is not far from $60. The average cost for rights on government projects is $45. Considering that it is generally conceded that the government has built more substantial and enduring structures and has provided an ample water supply, which many large private enterprises have not," said Mr. Newell, "the comparison of costs is even more favorable to the government works."

JOB HUNTERS BADLY JARRED

By Pres. Wilson's Appointment of a Taft Sup- porter

J. K. WILLIAMS ASST. SEC. OF TREASURY

Mr. Williams Long Has Been Independent in Politics

Washington, D. C., March 14.—President Wilson yesterday announced the appointment of John Skelton Williams of Richmond, Va., to be assistant secretary of the treasury. Mr. Williams is a banker of long experience. He created the Seaboard Air Line railway system and was for a long time its president.

Mr. Williams and other members of his family have always been independent in politics. It is authoritatively stated that he supported Taft against Bryan in 1908. Senators Martin and Swanson of Virginia were called in by the president yesterday morning for a perfunctory consultation on this appointment and announcement was made a few minutes after their departure.

With the announcement of Williams' appointment the hopes of loyal Democrats who have fought the battles of their party on empty stomachs for the past sixteen years have gone glimmering still further down the path to the land of what might have been. Scores of these party men have grown daily more dismayed as President Wilson's intention to base his appointments on real merit rather than party fealty became more and more apparent.

The first important appointment announced by the president was that of John H. Marble to the interstate commerce commission. Marble had been appointed secretary to the commission by President Roosevelt. His activities have been limited to efficiency in his service to the commission, and he had performed no labors for the Democratic party which would entitle him to a commissionship had Mr. Wilson regarded this office as a "plum."

Right on the heels of Marble's appointment came that of Dr. Charles P. Neill to succeed himself as commissioner of labor. Dr. Neill is an out and out Taft Republican, although he has never been politically active. His appointment to succeed himself was sent to the Senate by President Taft last fall, but the Democrats refused to allow its confirmation.

Then the new Democratic president appointed Lazar E. Clark to succeed himself on the interstate commerce commission. Clark's appointment also had been sent to the Senate by Mr. Taft and also had been held up by Democrats.

William F. McCombs has endorsed Col. William H. Osborne of Greensboro, N. C., for commissioner of internal revenue. He has presented Col. Osborne's name to the president and it is considered a good guess that Mr. Wilson will be anxious to please Mr. McCombs in the matter.

He arranged to consult tonight with La Follette at the White House on legislative policies. He will consult the progressive Republican group freely and endeavor to obtain their aid in pushing through progressive legislation.

HOLLIS HAD 3 VOTES MORE THAN NEEDED

Break of Deadlock Came When Republican Vote Shifted to Another Candidate, Who Received Only Partial Support of Party.

Concord, N. H., March 14.—Henry F. Hollis, Democrat, who was elected United States senator yesterday, received 183 votes, or three more than required.

John H. Bartlett, the new Republican caucus candidate, had 121 and Edward N. Pearson, Republican, who yesterday retired from the contest, 14. Henry B. Quincy, Republican, had 13 and Robert P. Bass, Progressive, had 12. The scattering votes numbered 17; there were three members absent and 54 were paired.

The deadlock which had continued since the daily balloting began on Jan. 14, was broken by three Democratic members from Manchester, who had supported Gordon Woodbury. Before yesterday's ballot was taken, Senator J. J. J. speaking also for Representatives Jannelle and Rickard, announced that while they had opposed the Hollis candidacy on principle, they felt that it would be wrong to continue longer as obstructionists and that the three would vote for Hollis. Two Republican members and all but two Democrats supported the successful candidate.

The newly elected senator is a native of this city, where he has been engaged in the practice of law since his graduation with high honors from Harvard university in 1892. He is 42 years of age. Mr. Hollis has been identified with Democratic politics since he came a voter. He was the party's candidate for governor and for Congress on several occasions, but never only elective office that he has held was a single term as representative in the legislature in 1899.

Albany, N. Y., March 14.—Gov. Sulzer yesterday removed Col. Joseph F. Scott as superintendent of state prisons and designated Owen L. Potter, the governor's assistant legal adviser, to take charge of the prisons temporarily. Judge John B. Reilly of Plattsburg was nominated by the governor to succeed Scott.

GLASGOW STUDENTS BEATEN

When They Attempted to Break Up Suffragette Meeting.

Glasgow, March 14.—Students at Glasgow university and 300 stewards, including 50 dock laborers, came to blows at a suffragette meeting in Andrew's hall last night.

The students fared badly. Many were beaten and scores ejected. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was announced to speak and the students filled the rear seats with the purpose of breaking up the meeting.

When they started an uproar a detachment of stewards and dock laborers swooped down on them. A free fight followed. After a ten minute engagement 50 students were carried out and the meeting continued.

McDEVITT WAS DEFIANT.

Quincy Legislator Refused to Make Any Apologies.

Boston, March 14.—Senator John J. McDevitt of Quincy, again defied the Senate yesterday, flatly refusing to apologize to that body for the accusation of bribery which an investigating committee declared unfounded. After hearing himself reprimanded by President Greenwood, McDevitt abruptly left the chamber under suspension until May 1, or until he makes an apology.

SWEDEN IS BECOMING "DRY."

Temperance Wave Rising—No Liquor at Rigsgard Restaurant.

Stockholm, March 14.—The temperance movement is making strides in Sweden. Both houses of the Rigsgard passed the bill forbidding the sale of wine, beer or liquors at the Rigsgard restaurant after January, 1914. In spite of the fact that the majority of the Rigsgard has not yet decided in favor of prohibition, this decision is considered significant of the great progress of the temperance movement and to forecast the introduction of full prohibition in the near future. The crown prince and princess are temperance advocates.

BURLESON HAS PLAN TO GIVE OUT PLUMS

Will Make Suggestion to Democrats Regarding Proposal to Open the Taft Civil Service List.

Washington, March 14.—President Wilson's advisors have solved the difficulty as to how patronage shall be distributed through the country.

Within a few days Postmaster General Burleson will offer a plan to open to Democrats 35,000 third and fourth class postmasterships converted into civil service list by ex-President Taft. Secretary Burleson may ask a revocation of the order, or he may offer a plan that postmasters who benefited by ex-President Taft's order be required to pass a merit test which would open also to others.

In the latter case the Democrats who entered the merit competition would have as good a chance as the Republicans.

Chairman McCombs of the National committee also will suggest to the president that any man who subscribed to Democratic principles be considered in the distribution of plums, without consideration as to whether he is backed by men.
